Egg carton

Cardboard - cereal boxes work great.

Cotton wool

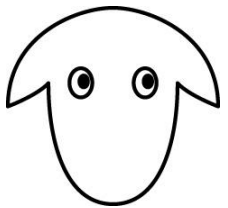

Head template

Glue

Ruler

Black felt-tip or gel pen

Step 1:

Cut an egg cup from the carton and straighten the edge so it sits flat and is about 2 cm high.

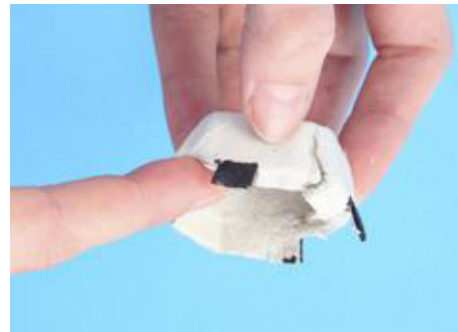

Step 2:

Draw two small black squares on opposite sides of the cup, right on the edge. Then draw two more, halfway between the first ones, so you end up with four evenly spaced legs around the cup.

Step 3:

Snip up the sides of the marked legs and also snip the card halfway between each leg.

Step 4:

Now push these flaps of card up into the cup (under the body), leaving the legs down.

Step 5:

Cover the top of your sheep's body with glue. Tease out a small piece of cotton ball and start pressing it into the glue at the bottom and work to the top.

Step 6:

While the glue is drying, draw and cut out a head for your sheep and colour. You may want to add a little tuft of cotton ball between the ears. Glue the head onto the body.

3/4 cup warm water

2/3 cup Cornflour

Leaves, tigs, flowers, herbs etc

rolling pin or branches

String

Cookie cutters

For more tips and tricks head to

Making the clay:

1. Measure and add the baking soda and cornflour to a non-stick saucepan.

2. Measure the warm water and stir through the dry ingredients.

3. Place saucepan on a medium heat and whisk gently until the mixture begins to bubble – doesn't take long!

4. Now use a wooden spoon to stir the mix quickly until you see it begin to come together like a soft cooked playdough. Don't wait until there is no stickiness left or you will end up with a very crumbly dough as the heat continues to cook it from inside.

5. Take off the heat and cool. Place a damp washer over the top of the dough so it doesn't dry out and begin to form a crust

Step 1:

Roll out a small lump of clay.

Step 2:

Press chosen nature pieces into the clay. You can mix them in with the clay or make a pressing.

Step 5:

Use cookie cutters to make shapes if desired. Make a hole if you would like to hang them once they are hard.

Step 6:

Place on an oven tray and bake in a very slow oven (100 degrees Celsius) for around 1 hour. Turn them over half way through so both sides dry out well. Leave to cool then hang!
