

our founder sir john logan campbell

Sir John lived a colourful life, of which there are many surprises to share. For instance, did you know that Sir John once snuck onto a boat bound for India without a ticket? He slept on deck with nothing but a shawl and a bucket of salt water to wash with - and all for love! He was on his way to visit Emma Cracroft Wilson, his future wife, who lived in India at the time.